

Handwritten Japanese text in cursive style (sōsho), likely a page from a book or manuscript. The text is written on aged, yellowish paper and is arranged in vertical columns, reading from right to left. The characters are fluid and interconnected, characteristic of the cursive style. The text appears to be a collection of phrases or a short narrative, though the specific meaning is difficult to discern due to the highly stylized nature of the script. The paper shows signs of wear, including some staining and discoloration, particularly in the center and right-hand side.
